6.1.2 - The effective leadership is visible in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management.

The College Development Committee (CDC), in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and various internal committees, is committed to advancing faculty development, ensuring a high-quality teaching-learning environment, and providing comprehensive support for student growth. The administration is decentralized, with responsibilities distributed among departments and committees, each playing a role in effectively implementing planned activities.

Serving as a key liaison between the management and the college, the CDC organizes regular meetings throughout the year to review and guide academic and financial matters. With three academic departments and several student-focused cells, department heads and cell coordinators manage the administration under the guidance of the Principal and the IQAC Coordinator. The inclusive approach encourages active participation from student representatives in the planning and execution of activities, fostering a well-rounded development environment for students. Ongoing meetings and discussions with the Principal and Committee In-Charge ensure the efficient implementation of the college's strategies.

6.2 - Strategy Development and Deployment

6.2.1 - The institutional Strategic/ perspective plan is effectively deployed

The college has carefully developed a perspective plan that aligns with its vision and mission, incorporating feedback from a wide range of stakeholders, practical experiences, self-reflection, and guidance from university authorities. This plan serves as a detailed roadmap that focuses on enhancing academic, administrative, and infrastructural aspects, all aimed at promoting the holistic development of students. A primary emphasis of the plan is the improvement of the teaching-learning process to ensure a comprehensive educational experience.

The institution is firmly committed to the successful implementation of this plan, with a particular focus on skill development. To support this goal, the college has thoughtfully designed and introduced various add-on courses that cater to the evolving demands, relevance, and emerging trends in the academic field. This proactive approach highlights the college's commitment to staying updated with the latest educational developments and creating a dynamic, enriching learning environment for students.

6.2.2 - The functioning of the institutional bodies is effective and efficient as visible from policies, administrative setup, appointment and service rules, procedures, etc.

The formulation of institutional policies is the responsibility of the Board of Trustees, chaired by the President. In line with the Maharashtra Universities Act, 2016, the College Development Committee (CDC) plays a key role in making important policy decisions. The day-to-day operations and activities are managed under the guidance of the Principal and the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). Various committees, comprising faculty members and interested students, are formed to handle specific tasks, with course coordinators overseeing planning and implementation at the departmental level.

On the administrative front, the Office Superintendent leads the administrative office, with clerks and Class IV employees working under their supervision to handle administrative functions and maintain infrastructure. The institution strictly adheres to the Maharashtra Universities Act, government policies, UGC and University guidelines, and relevant statutes, ensuring compliance in areas such as appointments, service rules, and procedural matters. This comprehensive structure guarantees the institution's effective and compliant functioning.

6.5 - Internal Quality Assurance System

6.5.1 - Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has contributed significantly for institutionalizing the quality assurance strategies and processes

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) plays a pivotal role in enhancing the overall quality of the college by implementing various practices. Firstly, the institution focuses on inculcating essential life skills and improving employability through guest lectures, seminars, and skill enhancement workshops. Experienced professionals from diverse fields, including corporate experts, guide students on industry-relevant skills and domain knowledge.

Additionally, the college emphasizes the importance of collaboration between parents, teachers, and students for holistic student development. Regular interactions, such as parent-teacher meetings and informal communication through platforms like WhatsApp, foster a strong understanding and relationship among stakeholders.

A significant aspect of the IQAC's initiatives is the attention given to students' mental well-being. Recognizing the diverse cultural backgrounds and geographical origins of the student body, the IQAC addresses mental health issues through regular programs. These sessions provide a platform for students to express their concerns and anxieties, fostering an open dialogue. Even during the pandemic and lockdown, the IQAC adapted by conducting virtual sessions to ensure students' mental health was prioritized, contributing to their overall well-being and maintaining the integral role of such initiatives in the college's activities.

6.5.2 - The institution reviews its teaching learning process, structures & methodologies of operations and learning outcomes at periodic intervals through IQAC set up as per norms and recorded the incremental improvement in various activities

The college prioritizes continuous improvement through various measures, which involves encouraging teachers to participate in training programs, Faculty Development Programs (FDPs) and the incorporation of innovative teaching-learning methods, such as the integration of Information and Communication Technology (ICT). The evaluation of teaching-learning effectiveness relies on comprehensive feedback from both students and teachers, considering outcomes from diverse activities, student engagement and examination performance. The Principal, Course Coordinator and the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) collaboratively guide and support faculty to enhance the overall functioning of the college. Two key areas of focus during the year involve promoting advanced teaching methods and ICT utilization, with faculty encouraged to participate in relevant training programs. Additionally, the college places a strong emphasis on enhancing students' life skills and employability through webinars, seminars, guest lectures and specialized sessions. The provision of free Add-On courses further underscores the commitment to nurturing students' skills. The tangible success of these initiatives is evident in the outstanding academic results achieved by the students.

6.1.2 - The effective leadership is visible in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management.

The College Development Committee (CDC), in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and various internal committees, is committed to advancing faculty development, ensuring a high-quality teaching-learning environment, and providing comprehensive support for student growth. The administration is decentralized, with responsibilities distributed among departments and committees, each playing a role in effectively implementing planned activities.

Serving as a key liaison between the management and the college, the CDC organizes regular meetings throughout the year to review and guide academic and financial matters. With three academic departments and several student-focused cells, department heads and cell coordinators manage the administration under the guidance of the Principal and the IQAC Coordinator. The inclusive approach encourages active participation from student representatives in the planning and execution of activities, fostering a well-rounded development environment for students. Ongoing meetings and discussions with the Principal and Committee In-Charge ensure the efficient implementation of the college's strategies.

6.2 - Strategy Development and Deployment

6.2.1 - The institutional Strategic/ perspective plan is effectively deployed

The college has carefully developed a perspective plan that aligns with its vision and mission, incorporating feedback from a wide range of stakeholders, practical experiences, self-reflection, and guidance from university authorities. This plan serves as a detailed roadmap that focuses on enhancing academic, administrative, and infrastructural aspects, all aimed at promoting the holistic development of students. A primary emphasis of the plan is the improvement of the teaching-learning process to ensure a comprehensive educational experience.

The institution is firmly committed to the successful implementation of this plan, with a particular focus on skill development. To support this goal, the college has thoughtfully designed and introduced various add-on courses that cater to the evolving demands, relevance, and emerging trends in the academic field. This proactive approach highlights the college's commitment to staying updated with the latest educational developments and creating a dynamic, enriching learning environment for students.

6.2.2 - The functioning of the institutional bodies is effective and efficient as visible from policies, administrative setup, appointment and service rules, procedures, etc.

The formulation of institutional policies is the responsibility of the Board of Trustees, chaired by the President. In line with the Maharashtra Universities Act, 2016, the College Development Committee (CDC) plays a key role in making important policy decisions. The day-to-day operations and activities are managed under the guidance of the Principal and the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). Various committees, comprising faculty members and interested students, are formed to handle specific tasks, with course coordinators overseeing planning and implementation at the departmental level.

On the administrative front, the Office Superintendent leads the administrative office, with clerks and Class IV employees working under their supervision to handle administrative functions and maintain infrastructure. The institution strictly adheres to the Maharashtra Universities Act, government policies, UGC and University guidelines, and relevant statutes, ensuring compliance in areas such as appointments, service rules, and procedural matters. This comprehensive structure guarantees the institution's effective and compliant functioning.

6.5 - Internal Quality Assurance System

6.5.1 - Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has contributed significantly for institutionalizing the quality assurance strategies and processes

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) plays a pivotal role in enhancing the overall quality of the college by implementing various practices. Firstly, the institution focuses on inculcating essential life skills and improving employability through guest lectures, seminars, and skill enhancement workshops. Experienced professionals from diverse fields, including corporate experts, guide students on industry-relevant skills and domain knowledge.

Additionally, the college emphasizes the importance of collaboration between parents, teachers, and students for holistic student development. Regular interactions, such as parent-teacher meetings and informal communication through platforms like WhatsApp, foster a strong understanding and relationship among stakeholders.

A significant aspect of the IQAC's initiatives is the attention given to students' mental well-being. Recognizing the diverse cultural backgrounds and geographical origins of the student body, the IQAC addresses mental health issues through regular programs. These sessions provide a platform for students to express their concerns and anxieties, fostering an open dialogue. Even during the pandemic and lockdown, the IQAC adapted by conducting virtual sessions to ensure students' mental health was prioritized, contributing to their overall well-being and maintaining the integral role of such initiatives in the college's activities.

6.5.2 - The institution reviews its teaching learning process, structures & methodologies of operations and learning outcomes at periodic intervals through IQAC set up as per norms and recorded the incremental improvement in various activities

The college prioritizes continuous improvement through various measures, which involves encouraging teachers to participate in training programs, Faculty Development Programs (FDPs) and the incorporation of innovative teaching-learning methods, such as the integration of Information and Communication Technology (ICT). The evaluation of teaching-learning effectiveness relies on comprehensive feedback from both students and teachers, considering outcomes from diverse activities, student engagement and examination performance. The Principal, Course Coordinator and the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) collaboratively guide and support faculty to enhance the overall functioning of the college. Two key areas of focus during the year involve promoting advanced teaching methods and ICT utilization, with faculty encouraged to participate in relevant training programs. Additionally, the college places a strong emphasis on enhancing students' life skills and employability through webinars, seminars, guest lectures and specialized sessions. The provision of free Add-On courses further underscores the commitment to nurturing students' skills. The tangible success of these initiatives is evident in the outstanding academic results achieved by the students.
